THE FAMILY CASKS

Statement from John L S Grant before the first release of the Family Casks collection in 2007

- It is pride and a sense of history which leads us to create a collection of limited edition Glenfarclas expressions –The Family Casks.
- Thanks to the foresight of my late father, George S Grant, we are in a rather enviable position that today we have casks from every year since 1953. I'm not aware of another distillery with stock from so many consistent years.
- It is our intention to bottle the very best of these casks – with at least one from each year – at cask strength and natural colour.
- We are doing this for two reasons. Firstly, because we can and, secondly, because we thought it would be rather fun.
- When The Family Casks collection is complete, it will be the biggest possible vertical tasting of Glenfarclas expressions.
- We have now completed the bottling of 300 single casks under the name THE FAMILY CASKS

We continue to release a new bottling of each vintage from 1954 to 2002 each year, selecting our very best casks from our traditional warehouses and bottling our favourites.

The natural colour of each bottle has its own unique character, originating only from the cask. The darkest whisky comes from 1st fill sherry casks, and lightens with each refill. At Glenfarclas we re-use casks up to 4 times.
